NYSHCR reserves the right to waive these occupancy standards at its discretion.

All pets must be approved by NRP prior to move-in and current vaccination records will be required. The owner/agent will require the tenant to pay for reasonable expenses beyond normal wear and tear directly attributable to the presence of the pet on the property. Such expenses would include, but not be limited to, the cost of repairs and replacement to the unit, fumigation of the unit due, and the cost of animal care facilities. The tenant will be responsible to pay for any damages caused by the pet at a rate of actual costs of the repairs to include cost and materials.

Unauthorized pets are considered a violation of the resident’s lease agreement. Lease violations will be sent immediately to the resident upon confirmation of an unauthorized pet(s). Residents are responsible for cleaning up after their pet(s). Failure to clean up pet waste is a violation of the resident’s lease agreement and may result in a $5.00 fine.

NRP prohibited breeds include but are not limited to: Rottweiler, Pit Bull, Doberman Pinscher, Chow-Chow, German Shepherd, Affenpinscher, American Bulldog, American Pit Bull Terrier, American Staffordshire Terrier, Staffordshire Bull Terrier, Akita, Austrian Short-Haired Pinscher, Carlin Pinscher, German Pinscher, Harlequin Pinscher, and Swiss Shorthaired Pinscher.

Assistance/Service Animal

A person with a disability may be permitted an assistance or service animal(s) upon completion of the NRP reasonable accommodation process. Applicants/Residents must be able to obtain or provide documentation which verifies that the resident has a disability, if it is not apparent, as defined in the Fair Housing Act and/or the NYS Human Rights Law which verifies there is a disability-related need for the animal(s).

Verification documentation (if required) is not limited to those from medical professionals but includes and accepts documentation from reliable third-party professionals and agencies, including proof of SSI and SSD insurance benefits, a peer support group, a non-medical service agency and a social worker amongst others.

A one-time fee is not required for assistance/service animals. Assistance/Service animals may be restricted breeds and/or other types of animals, exceed weight restrictions and/or may include more animals than the standard pet policy if approved in the NRP reasonable accommodation process.

VAWA

The Violence Against Women Act ("VAWA") is an act implemented to protect survivors of domestic and dating violence, stalking, and sexual assault who reside in communities funded by certain programs that include Low-Income Housing Tax Credits.

VAWA bars eviction and termination due to a tenant's status as a survivor and requires landlords to maintain survivor-resident confidentiality. It also continues to prohibit an applicant/tenant who is a survivor of domestic violence from being denied assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights based solely on criminal activity related to an act of domestic violence committed against them.

It allows for lease bifurcation so a resident or lawful occupant who engages in criminal acts of physical violence against affiliated individuals or others may be evicted or removed without evicting or removing or otherwise penalizing a victim who is a resident or lawful occupant. If a victim cannot establish eligibility once the abuser has been evicted or removed, NRP Management will give a reasonable amount of time to find new housing or establish eligibility under another covered housing program. VAWA survivors may request a unit transfer as stipulated by VAWA.

You can be evicted, and your assistance can be terminated for serious or repeated lease violations that are not related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking committed against you. However, NRP cannot hold tenants who have been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to a more demanding set of rules than it applies to tenants who have not been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

The protections described in this notice might not apply, and you could be evicted, and your assistance terminated, if NRP can demonstrate that not evicting you or terminating your assistance would present a real physical danger that:

1. Would occur within an immediate time frame, and
2. Could result in death or serious bodily harm to other tenants or those who work on the property.

If NRP can demonstrate the above, NRP should only terminate your assistance or evict you if there are no other actions that could be taken to reduce or eliminate the threat.

NRP must keep confidential any information you provide related to the exercise of your rights under VAWA, including the fact that you are exercising your rights under VAWA.

NRP must not allow any individual administering assistance or other services on behalf of it (for example, employees and contractors) to have access to confidential information unless for reasons that specifically call for these individuals to have access to this information under applicable Federal, State, or local law.

NRP must not enter your information into any shared database or disclose your information to any other entity or individual. NRP, however, may disclose the information provided if:

1. You give written permission to NRP to release the information on a time limited basis.
2. NRP needs to use the information in an eviction or termination proceeding, such as to evict your abuser or perpetrator or terminate your abuser or perpetrator from assistance under this program.
3. A law requires NRP to release the information.

VAWA does not limit NRP's duty to honor court orders about access to or control of the property. This includes orders issued to protect a victim and orders dividing property among household members in cases where a family breaks up.

Student Status

A household may not consist entirely of full-time students unless verification is obtained that the household meets one of the exceptions listed below.

Student status is defined by the educational institution. Educational institutions include conventional colleges, vocational schools with a diploma or certificate program, technical schools, online courses that could result in a degree, high schools, middle schools, and elementary schools. A Full-time Student is looked at as attending five (5) months or more out of a calendar year, and the months do not have to be consistent.

Exceptions to the Full-Time Student Rule:

1. All members must be married and eligible to file a joint tax return.
2. Household consists of a single parent(s) with children and parent(s) and children are not dependents on another person's tax return, with the exception of the other parent (not residing in the unit).
3. At least one member is receiving assistance under Title IV of the Social Security Act (TANF) or AFDC.
4. At least one student is enrolled in a Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA) or other similar federally funded program.
5. If previously in foster care.

Reasonable Accommodations

As established in the Fair Housing Act, persons with disabilities are entitled to have equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling unit, including the public and common use areas. Reasonable Modifications and Reasonable Accommodations afford a disabled individual the opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling unit, public and/or common use area that they would not otherwise have if the current physical conditions or policies of the property were maintained.

A Reasonable Modification is a change in the physical arrangement of the interior of a housing unit, common spaces or parking areas of rental housing covered by the Fair Housing Act.

A Reasonable Accommodation refers to procedural changes such as changes in rules or policies covered under the Fair Housing Act and Section 504.

Reasonable Accommodation and Modification requests may be made to the Community Manager at the Rental Office, or in writing by requesting a NRP Reasonable Accommodation and Modification Request Form. Verification of disability and disability-related need will be required as permitted under the Fair Housing Act. If a Reasonable Accommodation is submitted, the unit will be held until the request determination is finalized and has been communicated in writing to the applicant. NRP's Fair Housing Coordinator will review all requests, respond within fourteen (14) days, and return a decision in the time frame required by local statute in writing to both the Community Manager and Applicant/Resident.

Application Process

Applications for occupancy are taken on a first-come, first-serve basis subject to set asides and preferences outlined within the Resident Selection Policy. A non-refundable background/credit check fee of $10.50 per applicant 18 and older (equal to the actual cost of the background check) OR $20 per household, whichever is less will be assessed. All adult applicants (eighteen (18) and over) must complete a separate application and they must be completed in full, dated, and signed by the applicant(s). The on-site staff will note the application with the date and time the completed application was received. All applicants will be asked to disclose proof of valid social security numbers, tax identification number, or other government- issued identification number, and must sign an "Authorization for Release of Information Request."

Applicants will not be penalized for failure to provide government identification if they are protected under NYS Human Rights law on citizenship/immigration status.

However, applications may be completed remotely and can be mailed, emailed, or faxed as long as all signatures are notarized, and the original signed documents are received by the time of Move-In.

A unit cannot be reserved without two (2) items:

1. Completed and signed application agreements.
2. Background/credit check fee(s) paid (if a screening report has not been provided by the applicant(s)).

If Approved, applicants are notified that based on the information provided, they may be eligible for housing subject to verification of the information provided on the application. This notification advises that the applicant has twenty-four (24) hours to decide if they would like to continue with the leasing process. If yes, the notification advises that the applicant is being placed on the Waiting List, or if no one is currently on the Waiting List, that a unit will immediately be assigned. If applicants do not respond within the required timeframe, this is considered a cancellation. If the timeframe of an applicant's screening exceeds 120 days, credit and criminal screening will be rerun for eligibility.

Approved applicants must then come in person to the leasing office to complete any and all remaining paperwork and provide any and all necessary documentation. Upon receipt of all verifications, the on-site staff will determine if the applicant remains eligible. Management, at its discretion, may choose to re-run credit and criminal screening depending on the amount of time since the preliminary determination. If eligible, the applicant is notified in writing that they have been approved for occupancy and are asked to contact management to arrange for current occupancy. Upon immediate or future (if placed on the Waiting List) unit assignment, the applicant is sent an offer letter in which allows the applicant fourteen (14) business days calendar days to respond. If no response is received within fourteen (14) business days from the date the letter was mailed, the unit will be offered to the next qualified applicant (or next qualified applicant on the Waiting List).

If declined for reasons other than credit and/or criminal screening, applicants will be notified of the denial of their application in writing (via US mail, the Applicant Portal, or by e-mail) within fourteen (14) business days of the denial (without exception). The written notification will list the specific reason(s) for the denial. If the denial is a result of information received from a third party, the letter will contain the contact information for said third party. An adverse action letter will also be provided to you as required by Federal and State law. You have the right to request a copy of your credit report from the reporting agency directly.

The applicant will have fourteen (14) business days from the date of written notification of denial to provide mitigating factors if they are rejected on the basis of credit history or if a history of justice involvement is discovered. The applicant may request all information used to screen the tenant within thirty (30) days of application denial and will be provided with this information within ten (10) days of the request.

Appeal Process for all other reasons than background screening – All denied applicants have thirty (30) days to respond in writing via USPS mail or UPS to NRP's Fair Housing Coordinator at 1228 Euclid Ave. Suite 400, Cleveland, OH 44115 to request a review of their denial. Alternatively, applicants may contact NRP's Fair Housing Coordinator via e-mail at fairhousing@nrpgroup.com or applicants may respond in-person at the management office. The Fair Housing Coordinator will review all documentation. A written response will be sent to the applicant within five (5) business days following the review with the final decision.

If you believe your denied screening outcome may have been due to domestic violence pertaining to the Violence Against Women's Act (VAWA) and would like to request an appeal, please contact the NRP Fair Housing Coordinator at fairhousing@nrpgroup.com within thirty (30) days from the date of denial. The Fair Housing Coordinator will review all documentation. A written response will be sent to the applicant within five (5) business days following the review with the final decision.

If your application was denied due to being deemed over income and you feel there may be an error, please reach out to our Compliance Team at complianceappeal@nrpgroup.com within thirty (30) days of your denial. The Compliance Department will review all documentation. A written response will be sent to the applicant within five (5) business days following the review with the final decision.

In the appeals processes described above, the appeal reviewers will not have been involved in the initial decision-making of the denial.

Accessible Units

The property will consist of a total of 72 total units, eight (8) of which will be fully accessible units for those with limited mobility, and three (3) of which will be designated for those with sight and hearing impairments. When filling a vacancy in an accessible unit, preference will be given to applicants who require the use of the special design features of that unit.

Waitlist

The property is required to place all eligible applicants on waitlists based on desired bedroom size selected by the applicant. Applicants must be placed on and selected from their selected bedroom size waitlist(s). The property has one waitlist per bedroom size that is established and maintained in chronological order based on the date and time of receipt of the Preliminary Application or preference ranking (see below for preferences). The application lottery will open on February 4, 2025 and end on April 5, 2025. The lottery drawing will be conducted at 5 Farm View Drive, Bethlehem, NY 12158 on April 22, 2025 at 10am. Those wishing to view the lottery drawing in person may do so at that time. For those who cannot attend, the drawing will be recorded and uploaded to the property website at www.HudsonOnNine.com. After the lottery is conducted, applicants will be offered units as they become available based on the chronological order of the waitlist. Applicants will be offered the next available unit, regardless of their stated preferences. Applicants will have the opportunity to decline the first apartment offered, that meets their stated preference, and retain their place on their selected waitlist(s). Should the applicant decline the next offer of an available unit that meets their stated preferences, they will be removed from the waitlist(s). Applicants may decline available units that do not meet their stated preferences without being removed from their selected waitlist(s). To be placed on the Waiting List all applicants over the age of 18 must complete an application and pay the background/credit check fee to determine if the credit/criminal criteria is met. Once those screening requirements are met, the applicant will be placed on the waitlist for the bedroom size(s) of their choosing. Applicants must report changes in writing to any of the information immediately. The waitlist(s) contains the following information for each applicant:

- Applicant Name
- Address and/or Contact information
- Phone Number(s)
- Unit Type/Size Preference
- Household Composition
- Preferences based on property requirements & regulations
- Date/Time of Application
 - 30% AMGI
 - 50% AMGI
 - 60% AMGI
 - Accessible Unit Preference
 - Current Occupant Unit Transfer
 - This preference will have priority and will move to the top of the waitlist.

Each waitlist will be updated annually. Each applicant will receive a letter from the property, which will request updated information and ask about the applicant's continued interest in remaining on their selected waitlist(s). This letter must be returned within the specified time frame or their application will be removed from the waitlist(s). It is the responsibility of the applicant to maintain a current address with the property leasing office in order to receive this waitlist correspondence. Any correspondence returned undeliverable will result in the application being removed from the waitlist(s).

Other reasons for removal from the waitlist(s) include:

- The applicant no longer meets the eligibility requirement for the property or program.
- The applicant voluntarily asks to be removed from the waitlist.

Waitlist openings and closings will be published in local media advertisements. A waitlist that is over 1 year will be closed and reopened at such time when vacancies mandate an opening of the list, and the community begins accepting applications again.

Transfer

A Unit Transfer list is maintained through the Waiting List for those residents who have been approved for transfer. Residents wishing to transfer units will have priority over the applicants on the Waiting List, following any transfer request for reasonable accommodation, VAWA, and/or income accommodation.

Residents wishing to transfer to a lower income-restricted apartment will be put on the Waiting List and receive priority over applicants on the Wait List for the next available unit of lower-income designation following any approved transfer request for reasonable accommodations.

In order to transfer, the resident must have completed a one-year lease in their current apartment prior to requesting a transfer within the community and must be in good standing. Residents receiving violation notices regarding their apartment condition and/or violation of the lease and community policies may not be eligible for transfer. Rental payments must have been made within the lease terms. Resident's current apartment must be in normal wear and tear condition to be considered for a unit transfer.

Each building is its own project (100% low-income and mixed-income projects). Developments that made the 20/50 or 40/60 election: to retain its low-income status at the time of transfer, the household must be certified and have a current annual income less than the income limit established by the minimum set aside by the Owner selected. Developments that elected the average income test under IRC §42(g): to retain its low-income status at the time of transfer, the household must be certified, and their current designation averaged together with the designations of the other households in the project must be equal to or less than the percentage represented at the time of Application. Affordable properties (including mixed-income projects): All damages beyond normal wear and tear in an affordable unit will have to be paid by the resident. Any remainder of the security deposit, after any and all damages have been paid, will be refunded to the resident at the time of move out, and a new security deposit will be required at the time of the new lease being executed

Transfer for a Reasonable Accommodation:

Residents who seek a transfer as a reasonable accommodation for a disability or VAWA will be transferred without being charged a transfer fee provided that the transfer has been approved through NRP's Reasonable Accommodations process. Disability-related transfers will be considered during the first year's lease. Transfers for reasonable accommodations do not include factors of view, noise, or apartment location when these factors are not related to the disability. Those seeking a transfer for reasonable accommodation will take precedence on the Unit Transfer List over income requests. All other requests will occur in chronological order by the date the request was received. If the request is denied, the applicant will be notified in writing and will be given five (5) calendar days to appeal Management's decision, during which time the available unit will not be rented to another qualified applicant.

A refundable security deposit is required as follows:

NOTICE DISCLOSING TENANTS' RIGHTS TO REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

Reasonable Accommodations

The New York State Human Rights Law requires housing providers to make reasonable accommodations or modifications to a building or living space to meet the needs of people with disabilities. For example, if you have a physical, mental, or medical impairment, you can ask your housing provider to make the common areas of your building accessible, or to change certain policies to meet your needs.

To request a reasonable accommodation, you should contact your property manager by calling 518-560-5920, or by e-mailing HudsonOnNine@nrpgroup.com*. You will need to inform your housing provider that you have a disability or health problem that interferes with your use of housing, and that your request for accommodation may be necessary to provide you equal access and opportunity to use and enjoy your housing or the amenities and services normally offered by your housing provider. A housing provider may request medical information, when necessary to support that there is a covered disability and that the need for the accommodation is disability related.

If you believe that you have been denied a reasonable accommodation for your disability, or that you were denied housing or retaliated against because you requested a reasonable accommodation, you can file a complaint with the New York State Division of Human Rights as described at the end of this notice.

Specifically, if you have a physical, mental, or medical impairment, you can request:†

Permission to change the interior of your housing unit to make it accessible (however, you are required to pay for these modifications, and in the case of a rental your housing provider may require that you restore the unit to its original condition when you move out); Changes to your housing provider's rules, policies, practices, or

* The Notice must include contact information when being provided under 466.15(d)(1), above. However, when being provided under (d)(2) and when this information is not known, the sentence may read "To request a reasonable accommodation, you should contact your property manager."

† This Notice provides information about your rights under the New York State Human Rights Law, which applies to persons residing anywhere in New York State. Local laws may provide protections in addition to those described in this Notice, but local laws cannot decrease your protections.

services; Changes to common areas of the building so you have an equal opportunity to use the building. The New York State Human Rights Law requires housing providers to pay for reasonable modifications to common use areas.

Examples of reasonable modifications and accommodations that may be requested under the New York State Human Rights Law include:

If you have a mobility impairment, your housing provider may be required to provide you with a ramp or other reasonable means to permit you to enter and exit the building.

If your healthcare provider provides documentation that having an animal will assist with your disability, you should be permitted to have the animal in your home despite a “no pet” rule.

If you need grab bars in your bathroom, you can request permission to install them at your own expense. If your housing was built for first occupancy after March 13, 1991 and the walls need to be reinforced for grab bars, your housing provider must pay for that to be done.

If you have an impairment that requires a parking space close to your unit, you can request your housing provider to provide you with that parking space, or place you at the top of a waiting list if no adjacent spot is available.

If you have a visual impairment and require printed notices in an alternative format such as large print font, or need notices to be made available to you electronically, you can request that accommodation from your landlord.

Required Accessibility Standards

All buildings constructed for use after March 13, 1991, are required to meet the following standards:

Public and common areas must be readily accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities;

All doors must be sufficiently wide to allow passage by persons in wheelchairs; and

All multi-family buildings must contain accessible passageways, fixtures, outlets, thermostats, bathrooms, and kitchens.

If you believe that your building does not meet the required accessibility standards, you can file a complaint with the New York State Division of Human Rights.

How to File a Complaint

A complaint must be filed with the Division within one year of the alleged discriminatory act or in court within three years of the alleged discriminatory act. You can find more information on your rights, and on the procedures for filing a complaint, by going to www.dhr.ny.gov, or by calling 1-888-392-3644. You can obtain a complaint form on the website, or one can be e-mailed or mailed to you. You can also call or e-mail a Division regional office. The regional offices are listed on the website.

Notice of Occupancy Rights under the Violence Against Women Act¹

To all Tenants and Applicants

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) provides protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. VAWA protections are not only available to women, but are available equally to all individuals regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.² This notice explains your rights under VAWA. A HUD-approved certification form is attached to this notice. You can fill out this form to show that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and that you wish to use your rights under VAWA.

Protections for Applicants

If you otherwise qualify for the rental housing or program, you cannot be denied admission or denied assistance because you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Protections for Tenants

You may not be denied assistance, terminated from participation, or be evicted from your rental housing because you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

¹ Despite the name of this law, VAWA protection is available regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

² Housing providers cannot discriminate on the basis of any protected characteristic, including race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, disability, or age. HUD-assisted and HUD-insured housing must be made available to all otherwise eligible individuals regardless of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status.

Also, if you or an affiliated individual of yours is or has been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking by a member of your household or any guest, you may not be denied rental assistance or occupancy rights solely on the basis of criminal activity directly relating to that domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Affiliated individual means your spouse, parent, brother, sister, or child, or a person to whom you stand in the place of a parent or guardian (for example, the affiliated individual is in your care, custody, or control); or any individual, tenant, or lawful occupant living in your household.

Removing the Abuser or Perpetrator from the Household

Selkirk Reserve LLC may divide (bifurcate) your lease in order to evict the individual or terminate the assistance of the individual who has engaged in criminal activity (the abuser or perpetrator) directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

If SELKIRK RESERVE LLC chooses to remove the abuser or perpetrator, SELKIRK RESERVE LLC may not take away the rights of eligible tenants to the unit or otherwise punish the remaining tenants. If the evicted abuser or perpetrator was the sole tenant to have established eligibility for assistance under the program, SELKIRK RESERVE LLC must allow the tenant who is or has been a victim and other household members to remain in the unit for a period of time, in order to establish eligibility under the program or under another HUD housing program covered by VAWA, or, find alternative housing.

In removing the abuser or perpetrator from the household, SELKIRK RESERVE LLC must follow Federal, State, and local eviction procedures. In order to divide a lease, SELKIRK RESERVE LLC may, but is not required to, ask you for documentation or certification of the incidences of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Moving to Another Unit

Upon your request, SELKIRK RESERVE LLC may permit you to move to another unit, subject to the availability of other units, and still keep your assistance. In order to approve a request, SELKIRK RESERVE LLC may ask you to provide documentation that you are requesting to move because of an incidence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If the request is a request for emergency transfer, the housing provider may ask you to submit a written request or fill out a form where you certify that you meet the criteria for an emergency transfer under VAWA. The criteria are:

- (1) You are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If your housing provider does not already have documentation that you are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, your housing provider may ask you for such documentation, as described in the documentation section below.
- (2) You expressly request the emergency transfer. Your housing provider may choose to require that you submit a form or may accept another written or oral request.
- (3) You reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your current unit. This means you have a reason to fear that if you do not receive a transfer you would suffer violence in the very near future.

OR

You are a victim of sexual assault and the assault occurred on the premises during the 90-calendar-day period before you request a transfer. If you are a victim of sexual assault, then in addition to qualifying for an emergency transfer because you reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your unit, you may qualify for an emergency transfer if the sexual assault occurred on the premises of the property from which you are seeking your transfer, and that assault happened within the 90-calendar-day period before you expressly request the transfer.

SELKIRK RESERVE LLC will keep confidential requests for emergency transfers by victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and the location of any move by such victims and their families.

SELKIRK RESERVE LLC's emergency transfer plan provides further information on emergency transfers, and SELKIRK RESERVE LLC must make a copy of its emergency transfer plan available to you if you ask to see it.

Documenting You Are or Have Been a Victim of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking

SELKIRK RESERVE LLC can, but is not required to, ask you to provide documentation to "certify" that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Such request from SELKIRK RESERVE LLC must be in writing, and SELKIRK RESERVE LLC must give you at least 14 business days (Saturdays, Sundays, and Federal holidays do not count) from the day you receive the request to provide the documentation.

SELKIRK RESERVE LLC may, but does not have to, extend the deadline for the submission of documentation upon your request.

You can provide one of the following to SELKIRK RESERVE LLC as documentation. It is your choice which of the following to submit if SELKIRK RESERVE LLC asks you to provide documentation that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

- A complete HUD-approved certification form given to you by SELKIRK RESERVE LLC with this notice, that documents an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The form will ask for your name, the date, time, and location of the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and a description of the incident. The certification form provides for including the name of the abuser or perpetrator if the name of the abuser or perpetrator is known and is safe to provide.
- A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial, or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency that documents the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Examples of such records include police reports, protective orders, and restraining orders, among others.
- A statement, which you must sign, along with the signature of an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, a medical professional or a mental health professional (collectively, “professional”) from whom you sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse, and with the professional selected by you attesting under penalty of perjury that he or she believes that the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking are grounds for protection.
- Any other statement or evidence that SELKIRK RESERVE LLC has agreed to accept.

If you fail or refuse to provide one of these documents within the 14 business days, SELKIRK RESERVE LLC does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

If SELKIRK RESERVE LLC receives conflicting evidence that an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking has been committed (such as certification forms from two or more members of a household each claiming to be a victim and naming one or more of the other petitioning household members as the abuser or perpetrator), SELKIRK

RESERVE LLC has the right to request that you provide third-party documentation within thirty 30 calendar days in order to resolve the conflict. If you fail or refuse to provide third-party documentation where there is conflicting evidence, SELKIRK RESERVE LLC does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

Confidentiality

SELKIRK RESERVE LLC must keep confidential any information you provide related to the exercise of your rights under VAWA, including the fact that you are exercising your rights under VAWA.

SELKIRK RESERVE LLC must not allow any individual administering assistance or other services on behalf of SELKIRK RESERVE LLC (for example, employees and contractors) to have access to confidential information unless for reasons that specifically call for these individuals to have access to this information under applicable Federal, State, or local law.

SELKIRK RESERVE LLC must not enter your information into any shared database or disclose your information to any other entity or individual. SELKIRK RESERVE LLC, however, may disclose the information provided if:

- You give written permission to SELKIRK RESERVE LLC to release the information on a time limited basis.
- SELKIRK RESERVE LLC needs to use the information in an eviction or termination proceeding, such as to evict your abuser or perpetrator or terminate your abuser or perpetrator from assistance under this program.
- A law requires SELKIRK RESERVE LLC or your landlord to release the information.

VAWA does not limit SELKIRK RESERVE LLC's duty to honor court orders about access to or control of the property. This includes orders issued to protect a victim and orders dividing property among household members in cases where a family breaks up.

Reasons a Tenant Eligible for Occupancy Rights under VAWA May Be Evicted or Assistance May Be Terminated

You can be evicted and your assistance can be terminated for serious or repeated lease violations that are not related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking committed against you. However, SELKIRK RESERVE LLC cannot hold tenants who have been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to a more demanding set of rules than it applies to tenants who have not been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

The protections described in this notice might not apply, and you could be evicted and your assistance terminated, if SELKIRK RESERVE LLC can demonstrate that not evicting you or terminating your assistance would present a real physical danger that:

- 1) Would occur within an immediate time frame, and
- 2) Could result in death or serious bodily harm to other tenants or those who work on the property.

If SELKIRK RESERVE LLC can demonstrate the above, SELKIRK RESERVE LLC should only terminate your assistance or evict you if there are no other actions that could be taken to reduce or eliminate the threat.

Other Laws

VAWA does not replace any Federal, State, or local law that provides greater protection for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. You may be entitled to additional housing protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking under other Federal laws, as well as under State and local laws.

Despite the name of this law, VAWA protection is available to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.
